THE FUTURE OF MANUFACTURING AND WORK IN THE AUTOMOTIVE INDUSTRY

11 Janvier 2019
CCFA
2, Rue de Presbourg
75008 Paris
gerpisa.org

10:00 - 10:15 Ouverture / Paradigm shift?
Tommaso Pardi, CNRS-IDHES, GIS-Gerpisa

10:30 - 11:30
Alex Covarrubias, El Colegio de Sonora
Driving the last automobile revolution: The search for new business and labor balancing acts

11:45 - 12:45
Michael Smitka, Washington and Lee University
Obeying or resisting to the disruptive injunction – seen from North-America

14:00-15h00
Tommaso Pardi, CNRS-IDHES, GIS-Gerpisa
Digital manufacturing revolutions as political projects and hypes: evidences from the auto sector

15h00-16h00
Martin Krzywdzinski, Wissenschaftszentrum Berlin für Sozialforschung
Industrie 4.0 technologies and their impact on work

16h30-17h30
Boy Lüthje, Volkswagen Endowed Chair, School of Government, Sun Yat-sen University, Guangzhou, China
Going Digital, Going Green: Changing Value Chains and Regimes of Accumulation in the Automotive Industry in China